A sports competition? Wow. I didn't even know about such a fun event!
What do you mean fun....

Huh?

Do we get a prize for winning?
Yep. A prize for each category.

Basketball first place winners get school supplies.
Soccer first place winners get a gift card.
Dodgeball first place winners get food credits....
Woah~ I see.

And track first place winners get 25 pounds of rice.
What!? Rice?! 25 pounds!?

Get excited about something students would get excited about, will ya?
Daughter! Do you know how much rice 25 pounds is!?

We have to win!!!
WOAHH
Did he just say rice... he's turned into a human already.

Wait, wait. Now that I think about it... do angels and devils eat rice, too?
No way.

Hmm...

1st place might be a stretch.
Why?!

Do see him? Over there.

He set the record for the 50 m race.
And him. His dream is to become a professional runner.
I heard he's already won a ton of awards in past competitions.

So?
Huh?

Daughter, there's something you seem to forget about from time to time....

It's unfair to even see me as an equal competitor to those kids~
Oh yeah. This jerk's a devil.

Hm. What if he really wins?

Ahem. For students wanting to compete, please come forward now.
Oh. Is it starting now?
Yep. It's an individual race.

Heh. I may not look like it, but in the other world I was number one in speed!
Woah~

I will be the one to feed my daughter's hunger!!! RICE! RICE! RICE!

PUA
I thought you'd show off some new skill or something, seeing that you're a devil after all.

I didn't think you'd even suck at running.
UGH!

Didn't you say you were first place in Heaven? Are the other devils really laid back or something?
Do they, like, look around and turn around and go backwards while they walk or something?

Devils, you see....

Fly.
Oh.
Daughter, I think you sometimes forget that I'm an angel.

...You don't seem like one at all....
THUD!
In the other world, was the fastest (flyer).

But you can't fly anymore.
ACK!
Sorry, I didn't mean to offend you.

Now that I think about it, your wings are fine, aren't they?
Then can't you fly again when you get over your fear of heights?

What is it?!

An urgent message from heaven.

Hmph

It's a message about a new team coming down to the human world.

Why all of a sudden?
I heard it's to investigate the case.

I guess it means they don't trust even me anymore.

SMIRK
In some ways it's pretty amazing.

All these angels and demons are moving because of you alone.
